If your completion certificate doesn't look similar or request the same information, you need to contact your course provider and ask for the "DE 964". Most course providers will email this to you.

- Student name should be exactly as it appears on your birth certificate, legal adoption documents, court order or passport.
- All dates on this form should be chronologically before the date on your Impact Texas Teen Driver Certificate.
- The parent who was designated as your instructor when you filled out your TDLR paperwork is the one who signs this form. There are two places for this parent to sign the document and include their driver license number.
- If you transferred from a driving school to parent taught, you will need to also bring the transfer document
